Hist/Bio Note: Daniel Joseph MacLean was a master carpenter from Nova Scotia who emigrated to the United States in the early 1900s. He worked for an architectural firm in New York City and through that connection he came to work at Vizcaya. He and his family relocated to Miami in 1915, and they remained here until MacLean's death in 1954. MacLean was a construction superintendent for James Deering from 1917 to 1918; he may also have worked on the construction of the Deering Estate, owned by James Deering's half-brother, Charles.

Scope: Images show construction of the Main House, including the East Facade, Courtyard, North Facade, and several roof images, including one of a man on the weathervane atop the Main House East Facade. Some images include Daniel Joseph MacLean and his son, Malcolm Browne MacLean.

Notes: Photographs are protected by copyright. Works created by MacLean will enter the public domain in 2024; orphan works (with a presumed creation date of 1918) will enter the public domain in 2038.
