Hist/Bio Note: This collection was found in the papers of Chauncey McCormick by his widow, Marion Deering McCormick. She donated them to Vizcaya (then known as the Dade County Art Museum) in 1956. In her note accompanying the photographs, she mentions that she believes the images were taken during Christmas, 1916, when James Deering opened the house.

Scope: This collection includes several images of Vizcaya decorated for Christmas, external views of the Main House, Main Garden, Boat House, Pool, East Terrace, South Terrace, Laundry, Piazza, Tea House, Barge, and interior views of the Sitting Room, Reception Room, East Loggia, and Galleries. There are also views of the Superintendent's House, Dairy, Carriage House, and Mule Barn in Vizcaya Village. Also included are images of Anne Odell Winston and Marion Denison Whipple Deering (Mrs.

Notes: As the photographer is unknown, these works are considered orphan works from 1916; they will enter the public domain in 2036.
