

FINDING AID FOR:
James Deering's Historic Library

Prepared By:

Collection Description

Collection Title: James Deering's Historic Library
Creator: Deering, James--1859-1925--lcsh

Inclusive Dates: 1819-1936

Extent: 793 objects

Restrictions: This is a non-circulating library. Items may be viewed in-person only.

Hist/Bio Note: This collection consists of books located in the library at Vizcaya. Like the objects in the house, the books were gifted in 1952 to Dade County (now Miami-Dade County) in the acquisition of Vizcaya and its remaining property from Marion Deering McCormick and Barbara Deering Howe, James Deering's heirs. From 1952-2008, some items in this collection were used for research and were subsequently integrated into the Vizcaya Guides Library. In 2010, a project was initiated to remove any original volumes collected and owned by James Deering from the Guide's Library and to return them to the archival collections. It is unknown if any books were removed from the collection prior to the gift of the estate in 1952.

Scope: The library collection housed at Vizcaya includes almost 800 volumes that were personally owned and used by James Deering. Many include his signature in the first few pages. Authors collected by Mr. Deering include Mark Twain, Immanuel Kant, James Russell Lowell, Robert Lewis Stevenson, Edith Wharton, Washington Irving, Bret Harte, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Theodore Dreiser, O Henry, Sir Walter Scott, H. G. Wells, G. K. Chesterton, Joseph Conrad, Victor Hugo, and Honore de Balzac. The collection includes books of contemporary literature, poetry, travel guides, encyclopedias, and political theory.
