Hist/Bio Note: This collection was donated to Vizcaya in 1988 by Irene Kugelmann, daughter of Thomas Lyon and niece of Robert Lyon, two brothers who worked as stonecutters during Vizcaya's construction.

Scope: This collection consists of 11 gelatin silver photographic prints that include images from the construction of Vizcaya. Most images are of statuary prior to installation in the Main Gardens, the Laundry while under construction, and the Tea House and South Sea Arm bridge, under construction and completed.

Notes: Images are orphan works from 1916, and so will enter the public domain in 2036.
